Welcome

Welcome to the second edition of the Ned News. I hope you had a wonderful and safe Easter with your friends and families!

Wow, what busy 3 months it has been. The first quarter of the year has seen me travelling far and wide around the Central West. I played at some new venues including Club Mudgee and the Wellington Soldiers Club and some regular venues including the Victoria Hotel, Waratah's Sports Club, Orange City Bowling Club, The Metropolitan Hotel and the Ophir Tavern just to name a few. Support and hospitality at the performances has been incredible.

Justin Landers Performance at Club Mudgee

One of the best parts of being a musician is that I have the pleasure of meeting new and friendly folk from all walks of life every weekend. I enjoy a good ole chat although, sometimes that can get me into trouble for taking too long a break between sets. ☺

Hitting the Air Waves

The debut album is getting a lot of radio airplay around the nation. Thanks must go out to the following stations and presenters for airing my songs;

Terry Kolstad and Country Sunday on 8CCC FM102.1 in Alice Springs & Tennant Creek

Terry Kolstad on 8CCC

Alan Gilmour and the Australian Country Songwriters Show at FM94.1 Gosford, Doug Tilley and The Saturday Music Variety Show and Rockabilly Rave,

Doug Tilley FM107.5

Rick Nash and the Rick's Music Mix Show, Ann-Maree Coyte and the Monday Morning Forum, Steve Fitzgerald and the Rock On Air Show and Matt Bryant and the Midday Variety Lunch on FM107.5 Orange, Ronnie Montague and the Country Roads Show on 2RRR FM88.5 Ryde, Harry T and the Country Club on Plenty Valley FM 88.6, Peter Matthewman and My Country Australia.com Radio and my old band college and friend from my younger days, Rod "Bloomers" Bloomfield and the Bloomers Bigtime Lunch on 2EL AM1089.

All of these stations also stream their stations on the internet and are worth a listen.

Full Album Released to Digital Media

The full debut album, Justin Landers – None But Ned has been released to all leading digital media stores and streaming services and is available now. Download on iTunes, Google Play, Apple Music and Spotify. Please don't forget to "Follow" me.

I am very humbled and proud to announce that all of my original songs have now surpassed 100 plays each. So, a huge thank you is in order for all my fans and to new fans for your support.

Copies of the album on CD are still available directly from me at my performances or from www.nonebutned.com, Landers Music and Chapmans Guitars and Music and now also available from the None But Ned Facebook page.

The album consists of 6 cover songs from some of my favorite country artists and also an original arrangement of a song made famous by the Bee Gees. There are also 4 original songs written and arranged by myself that were inspired by recent events in my life.

Orange JAM Saturday Event

The JAM Saturday event was held on Saturday 24th March and was hosted by JAM Orange, The Orange City Council and was also made possible by a Government grant from Create NSW.

I had the tremendous privilege of performing alongside and meeting some of the regions most talented musicians during my allotted set at the Royal Hotel including; November Shorn who performed some traditional Irish and Australian bush music,

The Lone Star Trail Band who performed some awesome Western Swing and Country music and The Honey, Drippin' Mudskippers who performed some Depression-era Blues, Ragtime Blues, and Dixie & Traditional Jazz.

All in all, I would have to say that the day was a resounding success with thousands of people attending the various shows/events centered in and around Robertson Park. The JAM Orange Organisation and Orange City Council are to be commended on their efforts to create, plan and execute such a fantastic event. There were 50 local and regional musicians who performed in the 12 venues involved in the day who also must be applauded for their talents and efforts to entertain the huge crowds that attended the event.

I truly believe Orange has a huge melting pot of talented musicians and JAM Saturday must become an annual event for Orange.

Thanks goes out to Ron Finch and John Kich for the photos.

Orange Camel Races

If you didn't attend the Orange Camel Races held on Easter Sunday this year, you missed out on an awesome day.

The crowd enjoying one of the Camel Races held throughout the day

There were market stalls, kids jumping castles and rides, food stalls and camel rides and of course, the Camel Races and Music.

It was great to see so many people support the event as it was in aid of a fantastic charity called Give Me Five For Kids. The charity was developed by the Southern Cross Austereo Organisation (AKA Triple M) to raise money for Kids Hospital Wards around the state.

The Orange Camel Races are run by the Lions Club of Orange to support the Give Me Five For Kids charity and to support our local children's ward at the Hospital here in Orange.

I had the honor and pleasure of performing at this year's event.

During one of my breaks, a friend (Bonnie G) managed to notice an opportunity to capture a fitting photo of me. While I was wondering what they were laughing about, my son managed to take this photo. Lol

Ned's Lame Jokes

I sent ten pun's to a good friend of mine the other day hoping to make him laugh but no pun in ten did!

If you find yourself getting cold with winter coming upon us so quickly, just stand in a corner for a bit, they are usually go degrees.

Q: What do you call a car that everyone can buy?
A: Afford

Do you know why you don't see elephants hiding in trees? It's because they are very good at it!

Last week, I went to the Orange Kathmandu store to buy a camoflage jacket but I couldn't find one.

I had a friend who told me that they were having trouble sleeping. I said "I don't have any problems, I can do it with my eyes closed". My friend dosent come to me for advice anymore....
